FRITTI - SIMPLY FABULOUS FARE

What: Riccardo Ullio and Madora Frey, couldn't stop at one hugely successful venture. Fritti is the younger, sleeker version of its sister restaurant. The menu is full of simple, no fuss authentic Italian treats. Neapolitan Pizzas, in 22 varieties, cooked on two visible wood burning ovens in the center of the restaurant, are the eatery's award-winners. Fried appetizers, ("fritti" means fried in Italian) like roasted red pepper and eggplant croquettes and the city's best fried mushrooms, will keep Atlanta's hip and happening restaurant goers coming back for more. The interior of Fritti is soft yet reminiscent of the building's original industrial structure. Be sure to enjoy the patio in the springtime with its border of oversized vessels and planters filled with tall shrubs, you will feel as though you are enjoying a meal in Milan . . .

Where: Inman Park
309 North Highland Avenue
Atlanta, GA 30307

Who: Riccardo Ullio and Madora have once again given Atlantans another award winning Italian eatery. Expect the same focus on service and quality as is consistently found at Sotto Sotto. Ullio impresses with an innovative menu, paired with the perfect Italian wines to enhance the menu's creative fare.

When: Fritti opened its doors in August 2000.
Lunch is served Wednesday through Friday 11:30 am – 3:00pm
Saturdays from 11:30am – 5:30pm
Dinner is served Monday through Thursday 5:30pm – 11:00pm
Friday through Saturday 5:30pm – 12:00am.

Why: With such great success at sister restaurant, Sotto Sotto, chef and owner, Riccardo Ullio, decided to create Fritti, a casual eatery specializing in Neopolitan Pizza and fried treats. Fritti offers a fabulous wine list, a comfortably urban bar and open patio in Atlanta's historic neighborhood, Inman Park. This place is perfect for those who enjoy sharing food and conversation in an elegant yet fun setting.
